BIOGRAPHY

>>> History Never Sounded So Good <<<

As a teenager in a U.S. college, his overage friends didn't want him out partying while they were clubbing. The solution? Stick him in the DJ booth where they could see him. What started as a babysitting plan turned into a career when the club's resident DJ—itching to party himself—handed MEEESH the decks. After months of secret training, he was already running the night.

By the time the resident graduated, he told the club owner: "You already have your DJ. He's been playing for months!"

MÆESH

Raised on MTV summers, fueled by retro anthems, and shaped by Saudi rhythm, American energy, and Japanese precision, DJ MÆESH brings nostalgia with a punch. His sets fuse 80s and 90s classics with high-energy remixes, making the old say "Damn!" and the young go "Daaaaamn."

Now at 50, with a life spent in acting, art, design, and corporate grit, DJ MÆESH is back where he belongs—in the booth, turning memories into motion.

When the set ends... "Habibi! That was LIT!"
